

Process Investigation

Duration: 3 days

A Process Investigation engagement examines the current process and deliverable and maps how the software can be implemented within a company. During the 3 day event, we interview both management and users to outline expectations and develop a implementation and adoption plan.