

RSDesigner Adoption Package

Duration: 10 days

The RSDesigner Adoption package centers round helping a company and its users adopt a new process and the RSDesigner software in relation to its current process. During this service, we assist in selecting a pilot project and defining metric to measure success. We provide one on one mentoring to allow the user to transition training knowledge into application. Ideally the RSDesigner Adoption package should be combined with custom or standard training .