

Catalog/library Development

Duration: As required

Catalog Development service assist companies in developing a standard library for RSD. Central libraries have been supported since RSD 7.0 so the library can be distributed throughout the enterprise with administrators managing the distribution and iteration control.

Developed libraries include the symbology, labeling and logical data (such as datatables) that is usually specific to a customer.

For more details we welcome you to Contact us.