

Process Improvement Analysis

The duration of the Process Improvement Analysis is 3 days. Below is an outline of the activities performed during the engagement.

Day 1

- Meet with team and management set expectations and agenda
- Tour the plant and operations
- Review current deliverables
- Identify group of individuals that will be interviewed
- Begin interviews with staff
- Document results

Day 2

- Continue interviews with staff
- Review models and current issues
- Document results

Day 3

- Collate information from interviews and process observation
- Review investigation and action plan with management

For more details please contact us .